

British Car Club of SW Florida Minutes of monthly meeting January 12, 2010

Location: Mel's Diner, Ft Myers, FL

Meeting called to order at 7:05pm by club president Headley Wilson.

Headley Wilson briefly reviewed the agenda for the meeting.

Ken Oehler, Secretary, provided minutes of December meeting (the annual Christmas dinner), noting that Headley Wilson performed on bag pipes, followed by his instructor whose recital showed us how the pipes should really sound.

Dan C., Treasurer, gave the treasurer's report indicating the club's accounts were in good standing with a positive balance.

New members and guests were introduced.

Team Reports:

- Dan C. introduced his "Welcome Wagon" team and outlined its purpose of engagement with new members, guests and current members.
- Ken Oehler announced that beginning in February, the monthly meetings would be held at Famous Dave's BBQ Ribs on Hwy 41 and Crystal.
- Jan Napolitano reported that she had met with the managers at Mimi's Café for the purpose of correcting the service problems we have encountered at our "Last Saturday of the Month" breakfast runs.
- Cy Ling, VP, announced that he is compiling histories of the British cars, also working with Marji Wilcox on a roster of all cars owned by members.
- Activities Director Bruce Skaggs outlined the points system, indicating that they will be on the club web site. Bruce also reviewed recent activities, including the events at the Charlotte County Racetrack, Sebring, and Autocross. Upcoming event chairs reviewed
